NEWSLETTER #2

The Austin Motor Vehicle Club of NSW invites you to attend Forbes for AOA 2011.

There are now over 165 Expressions of Interest received by the committee and planning for the event is well underway. Exciting runs are being organised on the Good Friday and visits to local attractions and much more, these will be outlined in future newsletters.

Response from the Forbes Council www.forbes.nsw.gov.au has been extremely positive. They have offered the use of many local facilities and the closure of streets as required.

Please note there is an error with the Forbes website as it shows AOA in 2010 this should read AOA 2011 and will be corrected soon.

Street maps can be found at www.forbes.nsw.gov.au/files/2087/File/Maps\_and\_Directory.pdf.

Forbes was established in 1861 and proclaimed a Municipality in 1870.

Distances to Forbes from Sydney 386kms, Canberra 276kms, Melbourne 685kms, Brisbane 1029kms, Adelaide 1049kms and Perth 3555kms.

A major hospital for the district provides facilities for accidents and emergencies.

Population is 10,138. Average yearly temperatures Min 15c to Max 30c. Average yearly rainfall 560mm.

Whilst travelling to Forbes there are plenty of opportunities to visit towns like Bathurst with attractions such as the Mt Panorama Racing Circuit, National Motor Racing Museum, Abercrombie Caves and the Bathurst Goldfields and Observatory. Visit the many wineries at Mudgee as well as Frog Rock and Fossil Wall, or Western Plains Zoo, Old Dubbo Gaol, Traintasia and the Biodiversity Garden at Dubbo. Canberra attractions include the Old and New Parliament Houses, National Gallery, Questacon and the National War Memorial.

Bookings for accommodation are now being accepted. Bookings must be made directly with your chosen accommodation provider and please notify them that you're attending Austins over Australia.

Accommodation not booked by the end of September 2010 will be made available to the general public.

Anzac Day falls on 25th April 2011 (Easter Monday). Entrants will have the opportunity to attend Easter and Anzac services during the event
